The global authority, now with local insight

Shourav Lahiri

Partner, Reed Smith LLP

Shourav Lahiri, a partner at ReedSmith's Energy and Natural Resources practice is a specialist arbitration lawyer with over 23 years of experience advising on oil and gas and infrastructure disputes. He represents clients in the onshore and offshore oil & gas, petrochemicals, power, infrastructure and building sectors on the procurement, design, engineering and construction of major projects. Shourav is routinely rated as a leading individual in Chambers & Partners and has been listed as an expert adviser in construction law by Who's Who Legal, Legal 500 and Euromoney.

In his daily work, Shourav relies on Emden's Construction Law, Hong Kong, a title offering comprehensive coverage on the entire gamut of Construction Law in Hong Kong. With contributions from over 20 leading construction practitioners Emden's Construction Law, Hong Kong has been painstakingly adapted for the dynamic Hong Kong construction environment.

“

I work on large-scale and complicated construction disputes. There are usually specific or bespoke provisions in the underlying contracts, which sometimes require a comprehensive and organised research tool such as Emden's.

Shourav appears as counsel in court, arbitrations and mediations in Asia-Pacific, the Gulf States and Europe. Having practised as an advocate and solicitor in Singapore, a solicitor in Hong Kong and as barrister in England & Wales, Shourav understands the need for a complete resource.

“

I find Emden's is particularly helpful when looking for a more comprehensive explanation on niche issues that arise in construction law. Moreover, the format of the text allows for easy understanding of how these niche issues relate to the overarching themes and claims often seen in construction disputes.
